

WE MAKE IT EASY.

SHRED-TECH IS THE INDUSTRY LEADER IN MOBILE DOCUMENT SHREDDING SYSTEMS.

For over 20 years, our focus has been to make it easier to start up your business, easier to operate your trucks, and easier to maintain and service your fleets. Now, Shred-Tech has partnered with Financial Federal to make it easier to finance your MDS equipment as well.

Financial Federal Credit has a significant advantage over other financial sources for one simple reason:
They understand the document destruction industry.

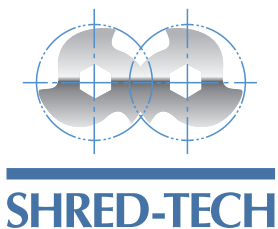

This benefits Shred-Tech customers because Financial Federal Credit can offer:

- Personalized, knowledgeable service.
- Competitive rates
- Options for start-up businesses
- Flexibility
- Leasing and purchase money

About Financial Federal Credit Inc.

Financial Federal Corporation, whose common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, is a nationwide independent financial services company with over $2.0 billion of assets under management. Operating through its wholly owned subsidiary, Financial Federal Credit Inc. finances industrial and commercial equipment through installment sales and leasing programs. The Company provides its services to small and medium sized businesses with annual revenues below $25 million. Virtually all of the Company's finance receivables are secured by a first lien on the equipment financed.

Financial Federal Credit focuses on providing prompt, responsive and customized service. The Company's marketing and managerial personnel average over twenty years of financing experience in the industries they serve. This experience ensures prompt credit decisions, financing structures which align the customer needs and the Company's underwriting criteria, direct contact with the executives making the decisions and most importantly prompt, knowledgeable responses to your inquiries and business needs.
